ORDER DENYING EXPORT PRIVILEGES

A. Denial of Export Privileges of George Charles Budenz II

On July 19, 2006, in the U.S. District Court in the Southern District of California, following a plea of guilty, George Charles Budenz II (“Budenz” or “Respondent”) was convicted of violating Section 38 of the Arms Export Control Act (22 U.S.C. §§ 2778 (2000)) (“AECA”). Budenz pled guilty to knowingly and willfully exporting and causing to be exported from the United States to Malaysia and Belgium military aircraft parts which were designated as defense articles on the United States Munitions List, without having first obtained a license from the Department of State for such export, or other written authorization for such an export. Budenz was sentenced to 36 months imprisonment and fined $10,000, followed by three years of supervised release.

Section 11(h) of the Export Administration Act of 1979, as amended (currently codified at 50 U.S.C. app. §§ 2401-2420 (2000)) (the "Act")<sup>1</sup> and Section 766.25 of the Export Administration Regulations ("Regulations")<sup>2</sup> provide, in pertinent part, that "[t]he Director of Exporter Services, in consultation with the Director of the Office of Export Enforcement, may deny export privileges of any person who has been convicted of a violation of . . . Section 38 of the Arms Export Control Act," for a period not to exceed 10 years from the date of conviction. 15 C.F.R. §§ 766.25(a) and (d). In addition, Section 750.8 of the Regulations states that BIS's Office of Exporter Services may revoke any BIS licenses previously issued in which the person had an interest in at the time of his conviction.

I have received notice of Budenz's conviction for violating the AECA, and have provided notice and an opportunity for Budenz to make a written submission to the Bureau of Industry and Security as provided in Section 766.25 of the Regulations. Having received no submission from Budenz, I, following consultations with the Office of Export Enforcement, including its Director, have decided to deny Budenz's export privileges under the Regulations for a period of five years from the date of Budenz's conviction.

<sup>1</sup> 50 U.S.C. app. §§ 2401-2420. Since August 21, 2001, the Act has been in lapse and the President, through Executive Order 13222 of August 17, 2001 (3 C.F.R., 2001 Comp. 783 (2002)), as extended by the Notice of August 3, 2006 (71 Fed. Reg. 44551, Aug. 7, 2006), has continued the Regulations in effect under the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. § § 1701-1706 (2000)) ("IEEPA").

B. Denial of Export Privileges of Related Persons

In addition, pursuant to Sections 766.25(h) and 766.23 of the Regulations, the Director, Office of Exporter Services, in consultation with the Director, Office of Export Enforcement, may take action to name persons related to the Respondent by ownership, control, position of responsibility, affiliation, or other connection in the conduct of trade or business in order to prevent evasion of the Order. I gave notice to Richard Scott Tobey (“Tobey”), notifying him that his export privileges under the Regulations could be denied for up to 10 years as BIS believes that he is related to Arif Ali Durrani (“Durrani”) and Budenz and including him in an Order is necessary to prevent evasion. I have decided to include Tobey in the Budenz Order. The basis for naming Tobey to the Budenz Order is that Tobey pled guilty to conspiracy to violate the AECA, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 371, for conspiring to export controlled military aircraft parts to the United Arab Emirates and Canada without the required licenses from the Department of State. Tobey was placed on probation for five years and fined $10,000.00. Based upon these facts, Tobey is related to Budenz by ownership, control, position of responsibility, affiliation, or other connection in the conduct of trade or business and he needs to be named to any Budenz Denial Order to prevent evasion of it.

Having received no submission from Tobey, I have decided, following consultations with the Office of Export Enforcement, including its Director, to name Tobey as a related person to the Budenz Denial Order, thereby denying his export privileges for five years from the date of Budenz’s conviction.

I have also decided to revoke all licenses issued pursuant to the Act or Regulations in which Budenz and Tobey had an interest at the time of Budenz's conviction. The five-year denial period ends on July 19, 2011.

Accordingly, it is hereby

ORDERED

I. Until July 19, 2011, George Charles Budenz II, 94394-198, FDC SEATAC, Federal Detention Center, P.O. Box 13900, Seattle, WA 98198, and with an address at: 25143 Jack Rabbit Acres, Escondido, CA 92026, and when acting for or on his behalf, his employees, agents or representatives, ("the Denied Person") and the following person related to the Denied Person as defined by Section 766.23 of the Regulations, Richard Scott Tobey, 42079 Humber Drive, Temecula, CA 92591, and when acting for or on his behalf, his employees, agents or representatives, ("the Related Person") (together, the Denied Person and the Related Person are "Persons Subject To This Order") may not, directly or indirectly, participate in any way in any transaction involving any commodity, software or technology (hereinafter collectively referred to as "item") exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, or in any other activity subject to the Regulations, including, but not limited to:
